WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE.

Testerday's Proceedings in the Senate and House of Belegates. The Senate met at the usual hour yesterlay morning, and transacted the following

Mr. Donehoo, from the Committee Education, reported House bill 330, to create the independent school district of Jane Lew out of sub-district No. 2 of Hacker's creek district of Lewis county, with avorable recommendation.

On the motion of Mr. Stollings it was Resolved. That the Sergeant-at-Arms be lirected to have gas jets and hurners placed in the ventilating flues in the senate Chamber, and the expenses thereof the paid out of the contingent fund of the Senate.

Senate.

Mr. Newman, on leave, introduced Senate bill 227, a bill making an appropriation for the purpose of paying the costs of establishing and maintaining a quarantine by the Board of Health of the State.

Board of Health of the State.

On motion of the same gentleman the constitutional rules were suspended and the bill put upon its bassage.

On motion of Mr. Woods the constitutional rules were suspended and House bill 405, amending the act concerning the public health, was taken up and ordered through the several stages to a second reading.

Recess.

Upon reassembling, Mr. Dawson called or the special order, the same being the consideration of Senate Lill 117, "A bill to provide for the regulation of railroad consideration of Senate bill 117, "A bill to provide for the regulation of railroad freight and passenger tariff in this State, to prevent unjust discrimination and extortion in the rates charged for transportation of passengers and freights, and to prohibit railroad companies, corporations and lessees in this State from charging other than just and reasonable rates, and to punish the same, and to prescribe a mode of precedure and rules of evidence in relation thereto; and to appoint commissioners and to prescribe their powers and duties in relation to the same," and on the motion of the same gentleman, the special order was postponed until Monday next at 2:30 r. M.

A communication was received from the Governor returning Senate bill 193, a bill smeading the charter of the Redebarger.

A communication was received from the Governor returning Senate bill 103, a bill amending the charter of the Backhannon Mineral Railroad Company, possed March I, 1871, and to repeal sections twelve and thirteen of said charter, together with his objections to the bill. Among the reasons given by the Governor for withhelding his approval to the act were the following: His first reason was that it provided for the incorporation of a railroad company by a special law, which is repugant to section I of article 11 of the Constitution. The act neglects to recognize a pre-existing corporation of the same name upon which it proposes to confer additional powers, clearly creating a new corporation in the place of the one heretofore chartered, and whose rights had been forfeited by the provisions of section 3 of article 11 of the Constitution. If the present company is desirons of effecting a reorganization, saving to itself all the rights it had acquired under its charter, the general law passed by the Legislature in 1881 secures to them all their rights and powers to effect such organization.

The question being put, "shall the bill

The question being put, "shall the bill cass, the Governor's veto to the contrary to twithstanding," the Senate refused to re-notwithstanding," the Senate refused to repass the bill.

On motion of Mr. Stout the rules were suspended and Senate bill No. 225, "a bill amending section 1 of chapter 121, of the Acts of 1877, passed February 28, 1877, entitled 'An act authorizing the formation of corporations for the purpose of constructing booms or dams for the purpose of stopping and securing boats, rafts, logs, masts, taves, ties, spars and other timber in certain counties in this State,' as amended and reencted by chapter 39 of the acts of 1881, asseed March 10, 1881, and approved March 12, 1881, and further amended by an act passed February 2, 1882," was taken up for consideration. By unanimous consent the bill was amended to include the following counties in addition to those enumerated in the act. Lincohe, Cabell, Logan and Mason, and the bill passed with its title.

On the motion of Mr. Faulkner, the Senate went into a Committee of the Whole (Mr. Stollings in the chair) for the consideration of House bill No. 274, regulations respecting licenses; sales of intoxicating liquors, etc., by drugiste; injuries to persons, property, etc., arising from illegal sales of intoxicating liquors, etc. Several amendments were made and at a late hour the committee rose and reported progress.

The House met at again at half past nine o'clock yesterday. The opening prayer was made by a delegate, Hon John W. Grantham, of Jefferson county.

A large number of bills were read the first time, generally by their titles only, under a suspension of the rules. Among these were "Senate bill No. 180, authorizing the heirs of Wm. Chapline, ir., to remove the remains of said Wm. Chapline and others from the place where they are interred to some other cemetery," and "Senate bill No. 202, a bill in relation to the government of the city of Wheeling."

The latter bill is the one amending the holiday present.

Why Will You

read the first time and ordered to its second reading.

Mr. Leonard, moved that the rules be suspended and the bill be read the second time at once. The bill makes an appropriation to pay the expenses of the quarantine arrangements now in force. It provoked a good deal of spirited debate, in which a number of the members took warm parts. Some personal allusions were indulged in, and the discussion took an annusually wide range. The—motion was finally lost, and the House adjourned.

Wellsburg's Boom.

anhandle News.

During the past ten days quite an excitement has been caused in Wellsburg by a boom in real estate. The prospect of hav-ing several manufacturing establishments focated here shortly, has set some of our people almost wild. It has proved a good thing for Mr. George Freshwater, who recently laid off a portion of his farm into lots for sale. For a time these lots soil sold, slowly, but, when a certain party purchased several aeres, with a view of selling the same, it seemed to occur to many that they must make an investment also. The result is that Mr. Freshwater has made a good thing out of the excitement. There is no disputing the fact that Wellsburg is coming out. Negotiations are now in progress with a party of gentlemen in Beliaire who are practical workmen in glass, who propose coming here and erecting their works. The lots have been selected, and the owners offer them for sale at very reason-seedy relief and complete restoration. ocated here shortly, has set some of our works. The loss have been selected, and the owners offer them for sale at very reasonable figures. The money required by the Bellaire men, as inducements to come, is nearly all raised, and it is confidently expected that in a few weeks work will commence, so that in the coming fail Wellsburg will have two glass works in full blast. In addition to this, capitalists from Pittsburgh have been corresponding with citizens here, enquiring about locations for from works of the high taxes and big prices for coal up in Pittsburgh are driving capitalists away and they are seeking other localities. Let Wellsburg offer reasonable inducements, and she will secure all the manufacturing establishments she may desire.

The latter bill is the one amending the charter of this city in accordance with the instructions of the city council, so as, to change the manner of running the city water works and constructing and keeping in repair the streets and alleys. It came up in its regular order, and on motion of Mr. Scabright the constitutional rule was suspended and the bill read the first time by its title only, and ordered to its second reading.

The bill to incorporate the independent school district of Benwood was also read the first time by its title, and rules being suspended on motion of Mr. Sinclair, Nothing but the preliminary reading of bills was done during the entire foremon cession.

Upon reassembling at half past two, after the usual recess, Mr. Holt asked for leave of abscance for Mr Brady, of Berkely county, till next Tuesday, which was granted.

The first readings of bills were then resumed, and a large number ordered to their second reading. The session was a long one and a bansy one, but, nothing what the preliminary reading whatever of public interest or importance was done until Senate bill No. 227 was read the first time and ordered to its second reading.

Mr. Loonard, moved that the rules be suspended and the bill be read the second greated and the bill be read the second previous of the greatest substantian and the constitution to pay the expenses of the quarantine arrangements now in force.
